The Civil Rights Fellowship is an opportunity for the next generation of Asian Pacific Americans to develop their leadership skills, and to increase a deeper understanding of social justice issues that face the APA community. The Civil Rights Fellow works on advocacy issues critical to the Asian Pacific American community, participate in professional and leadership development programs, receive hands-on experience managing a community based non-profit organization, fundraising, website management and media relations.

OCA-GLA is currently seeking a Fellow for 2012-2013. Interested applicants can download the application form here:

2012-2013 OCA-GLA Civil Rights Fellowship